Battling With an Octopus.

Three young men aged abou: 18 years had an exciting encounter with an octopus or devil fish under the old wharf belonging to the Myers Canning Company at West Scattle, about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. It reenited in the hightful creature being zilled after a fearful struggle. It was neceseary to sever completely every one of the horrid creature's tentacles from its body be-fore before it gave up the struggle. The fight was witnessed by quite a number of

The boys were fishing for tomcod from the front of the whatf when they noticed a considerable commotion in the water under the wharf. One of them, Dick Smith, took a iong pole and climbed under the wharf to find out, if possible, the c use of the disturb-ance. He had not gone far when in the semi-gloom he discovered a strange shape, and saw a pair of small eyes g aring as him. In his fright he poked at the animal with the pole, but to his horror and amazement it was wrenched from his hand as easily as Young Smith gave a frightened yell and a limbed to the top of the wharf to give the alarm. Several boys, arming themselves with poles and epades, climbed down under the wharf to inves igate this marine monster, and if possible capture it.
